Revered by the Supreme Court

A New Trial Ordered in a Murder Case

From Utah

Washington, March 11—The supreme court of the United States rendered the opinion in the case of the murder of Colton, a drunken scoundrel, killed a companion and was sentenced to be hanged. The appeal from the supreme court of Utah is on the ground that the lower court should have held that the jury that might recommend that the prisoner might be sentenced for life. A new trial was ordered.

Another Decision

Washington, March 11—The supreme court has rendered a decision holding that the time of an army officer's service as an enlisted man should be taken into account in computing the longevity pay.

To Found a Colony

Editors of Agricultural Papers to Establish a Town in Montana

Chicago, March 11—Last June the editors of the leading agricultural papers of the country visited Northern Montana and they were so favorably impressed that they formed a stock company with $100,000 capital to found a colony and build a town. The members of this company met here Saturday. The proposed town will be located in the center of the tract, 300 by 300 miles to the northeast corner of the territory, and will be situated about the river from Fort Belknap.
